(b) what is the unutilised amount of foreign aid at the end of 1991 as comparted to the unutilised aid at the end of 1990;

(c) what are the Circumstances for non-utilisation of the aid and what is its impact on the programmes for which aid was received;

(d) what is the present position with regard to the unutilised amount of foreign aid; and

(e) what is the manner' in which Gov ernment: propose to move in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI RA-MESHWAR THAKUR); (a) Information is given in the attacked statement. [See below] _

(b) The unutilised amount of foreign aid at the end of financial year 1989-90 and 1990-91 was Rs. 47982 crores and Rs. 56662 crores respectively.

(c) Most of the external assistance is tied to specific projects and the disburse ments are, therefore, linked to the pro ject implementation schedule. The pace of actual implementation varies from project to project. However, the loan amount not utilised during a particular financial year does not normally lapse and would be carried forward for utilisation in the subsequent years.

(d) The unutilised amount of foreign aid as on 30.6.1992 is estimated to Rs. 81246 crores.

(e) Government have taken a number of steps to accelerate the implementa tion of externally aided projects and the utilisation of external assistance. These include simplification of procedures for release of foreign exchange and tender evaluation, passing on of 100 per cent external assistance to States, and advance releases on account of externally aided projects. Monitoring of externally aided projects has also been intensified.
